To control the lights with Light-O-Rama hardware, you will need to purchase the software package available on the Light-O-Rama web site. This software package will contain everything you need in order to use LOR to its maximum potential.